PITTSBORO, Ind. – Landscape contractor A Cut n' Edge was recently honored with The Pulse of the City News Customer Satisfaction Award for providing outstanding customer service.

Pulse of the City News is committed to finding and honoring those companies in the building and construction industry that have provided an excellent customer experience for their customers. The Pulse research team analyzes research and information gathered from many sources, including nominations, online business and consumer user-review websites, blogs, social media, business-rating services, and other credible sources, and determines a yearly rating for each company. Companies that receive the highest possible rating of 4 to 5 stars earn the Pulse Award.

A Cut n' Edge received the highest possible rating of 5 stars, demonstrating a high level of customer satisfaction. The business, which began in 1999, is a full-service landscaping company offering mowing, fertilization and weed control, leaf removal, shrub trimming, hardscaping, irrigation and snow removal.

"I believe that a lot of our success has to do with the honesty, quality and professionalism that we instill into the business," says Owner Dustin M. Stamm. "Every customer is treated with the utmost respect and honesty. Without great customer service, we have no business."

A Cut n' Edge does more than simply provide services to clients. "Our company culture is focused on bringing landscape education to our residential clients and to provide sound advice when asked," says Stamm. "We also maintain our local parks and medians in the community; we like to keep the community looking clean and well maintained."
