SAN MARCOS, Calif. – In an effort to get the irrigation industry focused on water conservation and Smart Irrigation Month, Hunter Industries is offering professionals a chance to win a free trip to the 2013 Irrigation Association show in Austin, Texas. Details for the promotion can be found at hunterindustries.com/smartirrigation.

While on the page, users will also have the opportunity to join the discussion about smart irrigation and share photos of their best conservation-focused projects. Visitors will also have the opportunity to see a new video that goes in-depth about retrofitting with water-saving products and practices, as well as try out the Hunter Water Savings Calculator.

There is no purchase necessary to participate in the promotion, and all irrigation and landscape professionals are encouraged to join the conversation.
