Takeuchi Manufacturing has entered into a supply agreement with Terex Construction for the supply of eight new models of Takeuchi branded skid steer loaders.

This agreement will provide Takeuchi with a comprehensive range of high-specification, high-performance, vertical and radial lift skid steer loaders to complement their existing line of compact equipment. Takeuchi's current distribution and support channels will handle sales, rental and parts supply and customer support needs for the new skid steer loaders.

Terex will supply Takeuchi with skid steer loaders ranging in operating weight from 6,500 to 8,600 pounds, and rated operating capacity ranges from 1,500 to 3,000 pounds.
